A LEGACY OF FREEDOM

3 DAYS: FEBRUARY 20-22, 2019

Includes 2 Cont. Breakfasts & 2 Dinners

1 ATLANTA, GA • THE VARSITY THE KING CENTER • MONTGOMERY AL • DINNER – CRACKER BARREL: This morning we depart Gaston County traveling south to Atlanta. Our first stop brings us to The Varsity for lunch on our own. This long-running drive-in chain has been servicing up burgers, hot dogs, fries, shakes & other American classics for over 90 years. Enjoy the food and the excitement of the largest drive-in fast food restaurant in the world! Next we visit the King Center, celebrating the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. We have an opportunity to see Dr. King's boyhood home, stop by the original Ebenezer Baptist Church, and visit the tomb of Dr. and Mrs. King and more. For our included dinner tonight, each person will be given a $15 Gift Card to select whatever delicious entrée we prefer at Cracker Barrel. D

2 EDMUND PETTUS BRIDGE • THE LEGACY MUSEUM • DINNER: After breakfast at the hotel, we drive to Selma, AL, to take our place on the historical Edmund Pettus Bridge. As we cross the Alabama River, we remember those who courageously faced unbelievable odds and inconceivable treatment in an effort to attain personal and political freedoms. Continuing our Legacy of Freedom tour, we travel back to Montgomery to spend the afternoon at the Legacy Museum. Located on the site of a former warehouse where enslaved people were once imprisoned, the Museum allows us to gain more understanding of the inhumanity of slavery through a series of interactive exhibits. Our included dinner tonight will be at one of the local favorite restaurants. D

3 THE NATIONAL MEMORIAL FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE • TRAVEL HOME: This morning, we visit the National Memorial for Peace and Justice, companion site to the Legacy Museum. Set on a 6-acre site, the memorial uses sculpture, art, literature and design to remember more than 4,000 men, women and children who were killed in acts of racial prejudice and oppression. As we journey home, we are overwhelmed with gratitude for those who paid so dearly for our freedoms.
